

The way of Le Puy – Landes

The path, coming from the Puy, in the Central Massif, crosses the south-east of the department, about thirty kilometers, from Aire sur l'Adour to Pimbo between two major sites: the church Saint-Quitterie (listed World heritage of Humanity by UNESCO), which houses the Paleochristian sarcophagus of the visigoth saint and the collegiate church of the oldest Bastide of the Landes created in Pimbo in 1268.
